Truck mount cleaning systems

Prochem pioneered the development of engine powered truck mounted extraction carpet cleaning machines over 40 years ago. Using only the best quality components and engineering excellence, Prochem truck mounts provide cleaning performance with long lasting durability for the professional and commercial cleaner worldwide. Applications include residential, commercial, airline and cruise ship cleaning where high performance soil extraction and fast drying are a priority. Excess moisture, noise and contaminants are eliminated from the cleaning environment, making 'truck mounted' carpet cleaning the fastest growing and most talked about cleaning method in the industry today.

Prochem truck mounts are available direct from Prochem Europe and from selected regional distributors offering installation, training and local after-sales service.

Safety and the Environment

Prochem truck mounts are CE certified under the Machinery Directive (98/37/EC) as amended. Surfactants contained in Prochem Europe truck mount cleaning formulations comply with the biodegradability requirements of the European Detergent Directive 648/2004. Waste pump-out and drainage outlet systems are designed to discharge cleaning effluent to a sewage drain, which is linked to a local sewage and waste treatment facility.

Prochem truck mounts are intended for professional and industrial use only. Service manuals and spare parts lists can be downloaded from our website www.prochem.co.uk

The new Sapphire Scientific range of powerful, efficient and spacesaving truck mounts and carpet cleaning accessories are engineered to deliver maximum performance and durability. Sapphire products are easy to maintain and economical to operate, providing today's cleaning professional with the latest innovations in carpet and floor cleaning technology.

Sapphire Scientific truck mounts are built on a unique narrow platform that leaves more space in the van or provides the opportunity to use smaller, more fuel efficient vehicles.

Each model incorporates innovative heat exchanger technology that captures and retains heat efficiently and gives the operator precision thermostatic control to provide constant hot cleaning solution. A new Short Reach Service Design has no component more than 10 inches from the outside, putting all belts, filters, oil drains and other service points within easy reach. Sapphire truckmounts also have an exclusive through-frame belt cooling design that extends belt life to help reduce maintenance costs.

All Sapphire Scientific models are CE certified by the manufacturer and include full installation, training and service back-up in the UK by Prochem Europe.
